"Wages of Destruction" is a real eye opener, and makes for a far more coherent story than you may have seen in TV documentaries or been taught in school. One thing that bothered me in the usual telling of the WWII story is the motivation behind Germany's aggressive actions, which in the traditional telling of the story begins and ends with "because Hitler was insane".

Wages of Destruction offers a new way of understanding Hitler ' s aggression as a reaction to a world historic shift – the rise of the United States as the looming hegemon of the twentieth century. For Germans of Hitler ' s generation, the dominance of the Anglo-American coalition had revealed itself starkly in World War I. Hitler ' s anti-Semitic conspiracy theory was a direct reaction to the double shock of the victory of the Western powers and the collapse of Russia into Bolshevik ...
